WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Advancing northward from Nish, Serbian troops on a wide front have captured heights dominating both banks of the Tsern Morava, making for a four-field, 100-mile-long military position reached here today, said.

In the capture of Nish, a large amount of war material was seized.

Serbian detachments operating in the Kriva Palanka region report, the statement says, that, contrary to the stipulations of the armistice, the Fourth Bulgarian Division carried off into Bulgaria approximately 2700 sheep, 4000 swine, 2000 cows, 1020 horses and 1500 goats.

The statement says a Bulgarian captain ordered the storehouse of grain at Stratin be burned and the cattle belonging to the population taken to the Serbian cavalry in advance in the direction of Kurehumlia and Prokuplje have taken numerous prisoners from three towns and four 15-centimeter howitzers and two field guns.

Allied Forces Smashing Forward Between Main German Bases in Flanders; Capture of Lille and Ghent is Expected in the Near Future.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—Marshal Foch is driving a formidable wedge between the German base of Bruges and Ghent, in Belgium, and Lille, in France. The effective manner in which King Albert carried out his attack Monday has further widened the wedge, which threatens to split the German forces unless the enemy falls back speedily on a wide front.

The British army of Gen. Plumer on the right wing of the Allied advance now is only three miles from the important railway junction of Courtrai. Once the Allies master the line Vervicq-Menin-Courtrai, which probably will be only a matter of a few hours, the German situation at Lille will be most perilous and that at Ghent not much better.

The French capture of Roulers is a serious loss to the Germans. Although the Belgian railway system is dense enough to provide alternate routes to a certain extent, the Allied entrance into Roulers on the first day of the offensive is bound to affect the German communication system most unfavorably.

HAVER, Oct. 15.—The French and Belgian troops in Flanders have captured 7000 Germans and taken eighty guns, according to the official communication issued by the Belgian office tonight. Belgian and French cavalry are advancing on Lichtervelde, between Thourout and Roulers, having crossed the railroad. The Courtrai-Ingelmunster railway line has been reached by the French and British.

WITH THE ALLIED FORCES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 15.—British, French and Belgian troops in their offensive, begun yesterday in Belgium, have captured more than 10,000 prisoners and have taken more than 100 guns.

Advanced Allied troops have signaled that they are from six to seven miles inside the German positions. Heavy rain fell in Flanders throughout the night, tending to turn the battlefields into seas of mud. The low-hanging clouds show no signs of clearing. A continuation of the steady downpour would undoubtedly result in slowing up the battle.

The Belgian town of Thourout was captured by the Allies. Thourout was an important strategic position and a vital transportation center. Upon it hinged a large part of the German transportation system.

Hindenburg Army Now Battles with Back to the Wall

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE,
Oct. 15.—The Germans continue to resist stoutly on the two wings of the French battle front, making, as usual, liberal use of machine guns and gas projectiles.

Gen. Gouraud resumed his attacks northwest of the Argonne Forest this morning, crossing the Aisne and taking Olizy and Termes, west of Grandpre.

Further retirement in that region would bring them close to the greatest military disaster in history, if they are not able to execute a general movement of retirement along the entire line to Belgium. The German plans since the defeat at Chateau Thierry have undoubtedly had this danger in view.

Entire armies threatened with envelopment in different pockets created by the fluctuations of the line have been saved by this foresight, which, however, may prove to have been tardy.

In the meantime the long line from Lorraine to the sea has been weakened and the difficulty of reinforcing it at critical points and sustaining it with food and munitions, as well as men, has become acute.

BASEL (Switzerland) Oct. 15.—Advices from Berlin say that the president of the Reichstag has postponed the sitting of the Reichstag, which was to have begun tomorrow, reserving to himself the right to summon the legislative body at a later date.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Internal political conditions in Germany, and possibly in Austria-Hungary, as well as the military situation, are expected to determine the nature and time of the German reply to President Wilson's communication of yesterday. The President's note probably already has reached Berlin through the Swiss Foreign Office.

Reports reaching Washington today through official sources by way of neutral countries not only indicated the existence of almost chaotic conditions in the Central Powers, but also said it was Field Marshal von Hindenburg himself who was responsible for the German government accepting the President's peace terms and seeking an immediate armistice.

It was said that at a recent meeting of the military leaders and the heads of the parties in the Reichstag, Von Hindenburg boldly declared that Germany must have peace at once on the best terms she could get. He said the armies no longer had the necessary munitions and materials to continue the struggle, nor was there any source of supply, so far as he was aware.

In the light of this situation the field-marshal said he felt the time had come to try, first for an armistice and then for peace, and he urged that this could be put in the light of a concession to the demands of the Socialists and pacifists in Germany. Prince Maximilian, the Chancellor, is reported to have strongly opposed such a course, but imperial approval was given Von Hindenburg's plans and the request for peace followed.

According to this version, Von Hindenburg, knowing the desperate condition of the German army himself better than any civilian, and especially the fact that there is now no supply of raw material to replenish the shattered stocks of munitions of war, insisted upon the application for an armistice.

Prince Maximilian is said to have reacted strongly, disclosing himself in the light of a true conservative and autocrat, only to be overruled by the majority of the war council, at which were present the heads of the German states. This is pointed to as the explanation of why the German note in response to President Wilson's inquiries was signed by Dr. Zimmermann, Minister for Foreign Affairs, although the Prince had initiated the correspondence.

From the same source is cabled a prediction that the German defensive cannot be continued without a debacle for more than three months at the outside. This statement, from a well-informed neutral source, regarded as semiofficial, is based upon belief that a great revolution is impending in Germany, the majority of the people being determined to have peace at any price.

No indication will be given as to when replies will be made by President Wilson to the Austrian and powers in Berlin and the German people now must see the futility of further attempts to avert defeat by compromise.

For further appeals for peace. It is understood that there is no ground for the President's belief that the Austrians in Austria, that the President would refuse to reply to Franchet-Burnier's appeal because of the authoritarian character of the Austrian government. It was said that this might be the case in Austria, but that it would not operate to prevent the consideration of an armistice, which Austria seeks.

The feeling is apparent in Washington that the atmosphere is clearer than before Prince Maximilian came forward with his peace drive and that the purposes of the United States and the Allies are more than ever clearly stated, and that the

Armies Defeated and Hopeless, Central Powers Now Face Supreme Crisis of the War

TEUTON ALLIES NEAR BREAK-UP.

Complete Surrender of Turkey Expected Shortly.

Exit of Austria from Contest Believed Certain.

Cause Hopeless, Even Kaiser may Capitulate.

BY ROBERT H. ARMSTRONG.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—With their armies everywhere in retreat before superior Allied forces and with the stern determination of the United States and the Entente to accept no compromise impressively enunciated by President Wilson, Germany and her vassals now face the supreme crisis of the war.

What Germany and Austria-Hungary will do with inevitable defeat impending is the question of the hour. Whether to fight on in a hopeless cause, capitulate on Allied terms or execute a new maneuver of their peace offensive in the hope of reaching a compromise averting catastrophe, sums up the situation for the Central Powers.

It is confidently expected Turkey will be the first of the three surviving members of the quadruple alliance to succumb to the effect of the ultimatum delivered by President Wilson. As a belligerent Turkey is tottering on the verge of collapse and is torn with internal troubles. The Germans have failed to protect Turkey and are falling into disrepute.

EXPECT TURK APPEAL.

An appeal from Constantinople for peace on any terms would occasion no surprise. The Turkish peace proposal, identical with the German and Austrian appeals, reached the State Department yesterday. But this proposal was dispatched ten days ago and since then the Turkish Cabinet has been forced out of office and supplemented by a peace government.

Now comes word that the new Turkish government has dispatched a new appeal for a separate peace although this report has not been officially confirmed. It is probable Turkey would be allowed to get out of the war of the Entente as did Bulgaria—demobilization and delivery to the Allies of all war munitions.

With both Bulgaria and Turkey out of the war, the pan-German programme of a vast empire in Mittel-Europa would be completely demolished. The Allies furthermore would be enabled to assist Rumania in expelling the Germans. If not to re-engage the whole eastern battle front in Russia.

MEDIATION ASKED.

Whether or not the Turks have sued for a separate peace, they have asked the President to direct mediation with the Allies, the United States being neutral in the war between the Ottoman empire and the Entente. This will permit the President to mediate the terms on which the Allies are willing to make peace with the Moslem nation. That the desperate Turks shortly will be compelled to surrender is not doubted here.

Austria-Hungary is in almost as serious a plight as Turkey, and the exit of the dual monarchy from the war is regarded generally as on the immediate program of world events. The empire is seething, not only with opposition to the war on the part of a half-starved population facing a winter of terrible suffering, but is a veritable powder magazine of revolutionary movements.

It seems almost inevitable that the dual monarchy will break up, or be broken up, as a result of its folly in helping Germany to launch the world war.

TO REPLY TO AUSTRIA.

The force of a diplomatic offensive will be brought to the aid of the Allied armies when President Wilson answers the Austrian appeal for peace. This reply will not be dispatched for several days at least, and in the meantime the meaning of the President's reply to Germany will be allowed to sink into the consciousness of the Austro-Hungarians.

The Austrian peace proposal differed in some important respects from the German Chancellor's note. It was cast in language plainly indicating a desperate and sincere desire for peace, and the President's reply is expected to furnish a severe test of Austrian devotion to Germany. If Germany can be completely isolated by the detachment of Austria and Turkey, the diplomacy of the Allied nations will have scored a decisive success.

Germany herself will be the least affected at first by the Allied ultimatum, for Germany is still powerful, still in possession of a mighty machine and less disturbed by internal conditions. Germany still can put up a stiff resistance for many months and it is not doubted that for their very existence, will endeavor to turn the Allied attitude to advantage, chiefly by arguing that the Allies are bent on the dismemberment of Germany and that all Germans must fight on for their self-preservation as a nation.

MASTERY RETREAT.

As evidence of Germany's latent powers of resistance it is pointed out that Hindenburg and Ludendorff are conducting a mastery retreat, probably the most marvelous military feat of this nature in all history. The Allied armies are gaining ground all along the line, but the Germans are getting away in fair order, on the whole, and with a large proportion of their stores. A member of the General Staff commented that were it not for this perfection of the German war machine at least a quarter of a million German prisoners would have been taken since the tide of battle turned.

State Department officials assert today that the United States is not seeking a change of dynasty in Germany, nor does it require the abdication or removal of Emperor William. "It does not make any difference who is the figurehead, so long as the people are the power," it was declared at the department.

Stalemate diplomats, contrary to unofficial advice received from countries contiguous to Germany, do not look for an armed revolution in

Germany, no matter what may be the attitude of Prince Max's ministry toward the American "decision" sent as a reply to the German request for an armistice.

PEOPLE ARE WEAK.

The German people, it was pointed out, they lack also not only strength, but revolutionary discipline. The imperial system is so strong still, it was declared, that no uprising is possible now, and none is likely next winter even under the most adverse circumstances for Germany.

The opinion generally held was that shortly the Reichstag, falling in the meantime voluntary action on the part of the Kaiser in initiating the necessary governmental reforms will itself take action and that this action will be accompanied by the Kaiser and his military advisers.

A distinguished diplomat predicting an acquiescence by Germany in President Wilson's conditions, said today:

"There has been the greatest race of all time during the past year. It was between the German army and America's efforts at preparedness. America won. The goal was Paris. The race was decided at Chateau Thierry. Germany had foreseen what would be the consequences of American soldiers kept moving on the United States should make itself felt in France before a decision could be won there by the German army."

The Germans, on the shortest road to victory, have broken through the French lines. It has not heretofore been published but it is a fact that the arrival and firm resistance of the American forces saved France that day. For thirty-six hours army trucks loaded with American soldiers kept moving on Chateau Thierry, without cessation, the American soldiers immediately taking their places in the battle line, standing their ground despite the fierce onslaughts of the choicest German troops, concentrated there in overwhelming numbers. The Americans held until French reinforcements could arrive, until the French could reorganize their fight, which was shattered, and until the Germans realized that America, represented by the troops in that battle, had turned the tide of the war.

GERMANY LOST.

"Germany has lost the race. The best she could do would be to offer peace, to concede President Wilson's terms, in an effort to preserve her own position on the certain devastation and punishment which it must experience if the Allied armies were compelled to carry the war into Germany."

"The German General Staff saw Germany's certain defeat. It must have seen an impressive occasion when Hindenburg and Ludendorff, in council with the Emperor, informed him that the best that might be hoped of the German armies was resistance to the superior enemy forces, ever increasing, and that the Emperor's only hope lay in diplomacy, not in arms, to preserve his position."

"The General Staff perceived defeat before the people desecrated its heads are hard-headed men, and they do not now at least suffer from illusions. With them and the Emperor it is the choice of continuing the war, following the example of Frederick the Great, in a desperate hour, exposing Germany to all the horrors of war, with decidedly more disadvantageous conditions than they might now obtain, or of capitulating to the Allies and America, but to the Reichstag, which means the people."

CONGRESS PLEASED.

Leaders in Congress, diplomats and public men of all shades of political faith, received the President's note to Germany with great relief. From all over the country came further evidence of the temper of the whole. Wires to all public men of the country, in form of unconditional surrender, and an end to any negotiations, were sent to the President. Those responsible for the Fourth Liberty Loan are anxious that the public should stop all speculation about the war and go on the basis of a flash fight.

The tension that has surcharged the air in Washington the last week is perceptibly lessened. The air has been cleared and no one expects anything more than a final surrender as the basis of peace negotiations.

POLITICS DOMINATE.

For the time being the political situation dominates the military and may continue to do so, but there can be no question of cessation of hostilities until adequate guarantees have been obtained that the terms which the Allied governments decide to impose shall be carried out in the spirit and letter. What these guarantees shall be is primarily a question for the soldiers and sailors, for it is essential that the Allied armies and fleets be so placed as to make it impossible for Germany to continue the war if at a later date she refuses to accept their terms.

The position of the French army, with defeat threatening, never before has a great nation acknowledged complete defeat while her armies were everywhere on enemy soil and she held in her grasp stretches of enemy territory. To take this position of President Wilson's fourteen points, it is obvious that the offer to evacuate the Allied territory while it is an indication of Germany's sincerity, is not a guarantee to France that Alsace-Lorraine will be restored to her. Neither is the withdrawal of German troops from Russia a guarantee of the establishment of an independent Poland, nor the payment from Belgium a guarantee of reparation to the greatest victim of German barbarity.

QUESTION OF GUARANTEES.

The question of military guarantees to be exacted will doubtless be left by the Allied governments to the hands of Marshal Foch, who will have to guide him Germany's own treatment of the problem.

GERMAN CHIEFS FEAR REPRISALS

Plead for Peace to Save Selves War Horrors.

Feel Sure Fatherland will be Punished by Allies.

Try to Keep Foe Armies Off of Teuton Soil.

BY MAJ.-GEN. SIR FREDERICK B. MAURICE.

(ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The reply of the German government to President Wilson is a great step beyond the acceptance of the demand that all the Allied territory shall be evacuated.

One of the prime objects of the German General Staff in this war has been to wage its enemy territory with the purpose of saving their own land from horrors and of carrying out the principle which they have adopted of making war support war.

On this principle they have from the first exacted the very utmost from the enemies with whom they occupied, in form of fines, enforced money contributions and forced labor, and not infrequently by sheer robbery.

We have all seen how systematic the devastation has proceeded and accompanied their retreats, according to plan. Knowing then how they themselves have acted and would act if they were in the position of the Allies on entering into Germany, it is unthinkable that they would agree to the armistice of their enemies backed by great and growing superiority in the air, taking a position everywhere along their frontiers if they conceived it possible to continue the struggle with any advantage to themselves.

POLITICS DOMINATE.

For the time being the political situation dominates the military and may continue to do so, but there can be no question of cessation of hostilities until adequate guarantees have been obtained that the terms which the Allied governments decide to impose shall be carried out in the spirit and letter. DELIVERED TO SUBSCRIBERS

Germany, no matter what may be the attitude of Prince Max's ministry toward the American "decision" sent as a reply to the German request for an armistice.

PEOPLE ARE WEAK.

The German people, it was pointed out, they lack also not only strength, but revolutionary discipline. The imperial system is so strong still, it was declared, that no uprising is possible now, and none is likely next winter even under the most adverse circumstances for Germany.

The opinion generally held was that shortly the Reichstag, falling in the meantime voluntary action on the part of the Kaiser in initiating the necessary governmental reforms will itself take action and that this action will be accompanied by the Kaiser and his military advisers.

A distinguished diplomat predicting an acquiescence by Germany in President Wilson's conditions, said today:

"There has been the greatest race of all time during the past year. It was between the German army and America's efforts at preparedness. America won. The goal was Paris. The race was decided at Chateau Thierry. Germany had foreseen what would be the consequences of American soldiers kept moving on the United States should make itself felt in France before a decision could be won there by the German army."

The Germans, on the shortest road to victory, have broken through the French lines. It has not heretofore been published but it is a fact that the arrival and firm resistance of the American forces saved France that day. For thirty-six hours army trucks loaded with American soldiers kept moving on Chateau Thierry, without cessation, the American soldiers immediately taking their places in the battle line, standing their ground despite the fierce onslaughts of the choicest German troops, concentrated there in overwhelming numbers. The Americans held until French reinforcements could arrive, until the French could reorganize their fight, which was shattered, and until the Germans realized that America, represented by the troops in that battle, had turned the tide of the war.

GERMANY LOST.

"Germany has lost the race. The best she could do would be to offer peace, to concede President Wilson's terms, in an effort to preserve her own position on the certain devastation and punishment which it must experience if the Allied armies were compelled to carry the war into Germany."

"The German General Staff saw Germany's certain defeat. It must have seen an impressive occasion when Hindenburg and Ludendorff, in council with the Emperor, informed him that the best that might be hoped of the German armies was resistance to the superior enemy forces, ever increasing, and that the Emperor's only hope lay in diplomacy, not in arms, to preserve his position."

"The General Staff perceived defeat before the people desecrated its heads are hard-headed men, and they do not now at least suffer from illusions. With them and the Emperor it is the choice of continuing the war, following the example of Frederick the Great, in a desperate hour, exposing Germany to all the horrors of war, with decidedly more disadvantageous conditions than they might now obtain, or of capitulating to the Allies and America, but to the Reichstag, which means the people."

CONGRESS PLEASED.

Leaders in Congress, diplomats and public men of all shades of political faith, received the President's note to Germany with great relief. From all over the country came further evidence of the temper of the whole. Wires to all public men of the country, in form of unconditional surrender, and an end to any negotiations, were sent to the President. Those responsible for the Fourth Liberty Loan are anxious that the public should stop all speculation about the war and go on the basis of a flash fight.

The tension that has surcharged the air in Washington the last week is perceptibly lessened. The air has been cleared and no one expects anything more than a final surrender as the basis of peace negotiations.

POLITICS DOMINATE.

For the time being the political situation dominates the military and may continue to do so, but there can be no question of cessation of hostilities until adequate guarantees have been obtained that the terms which the Allied governments decide to impose shall be carried out in the spirit and letter. What these guarantees shall be is primarily a question for the soldiers and sailors, for it is essential that the Allied armies and fleets be so placed as to make it impossible for Germany to continue the war if at a later date she refuses to accept their terms.

The position of the French army, with defeat threatening, never before has a great nation acknowledged complete defeat while her armies were everywhere on enemy soil and she held in her grasp stretches of enemy territory. To take this position of President Wilson's fourteen points, it is obvious that the offer to evacuate the Allied territory while it is an indication of Germany's sincerity, is not a guarantee to France that Alsace-Lorraine will be restored to her. Neither is the withdrawal of German troops from Russia a guarantee of the establishment of an independent Poland, nor the payment from Belgium a guarantee of reparation to the greatest victim of German barbarity.

QUESTION OF GUARANTEES.

The question of military guarantees to be exacted will doubtless be left by the Allied governments to the hands of Marshal Foch, who will have to guide him Germany's own treatment of the problem.

Announcing Another Shipment of That "MIRACLE PLAYER"

The Solo-Euphona

There are several kinds of players:
The ordinary kind, that merely hits the notes of a composition and is limited to soft and loud expression buttons;
The melody accenting variety, so much desired, but so seldom encountered because they cost more and are found at only a few stores;
The electric and the grand players, having a limited demand, but meeting certain requirements of the critical, found in no other styles.
If you investigate you will find the greatest and most lasting pleasure to be found in the second class.
Once the Melody Accenting player is understood, you will have no other.

DOUAI VIRTUALLY TAKEN.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

Paris, Oct. 15.—(Havas.)—Summing up the situation on the British front, the Echo de Paris says that Douai virtually has been taken, that Valenciennes is threatened and Denain, only a few kilometers distant. To give an idea of the German losses in Champagne the Petit Parisien quotes the evidence of an enemy prisoner, who said that the Four hundred and Sixty Infantry Regiment, while engaged in battle on October 13, was decimated. The companies in two battalions, according to the prisoner, were reduced to thirty, and two other supporting battalions suffered heavily from artillery and airplanes. Despite these losses, the prisoner said, the regiment was ordered to counter-attack.

decision had been announced rumors were current of the probable retirement of Prince Maximilian, and these were followed by reports that Scheidemann might take his place as Chancellor. Such a development would be regarded as important only as an index to the leaves working in Germany. It was made very clear again today that President Wilson's opinion is that it matters little who is the German Chancellor and the government are answerable to the Kaiser. Some observers here think the Germans will make any sacrifice rather than go through another winter of war at or within their borders, and that the next move in Berlin may come more quickly than is generally expected.

Military officials here, however, are almost united of the opinion that Germany has not been brought to the point where it will seek an armistice on terms laid down. On the contrary, they think the military elements still in control will hold up the President's communication to the German people as proof of their contention that their enemies are determined to bring about destruction of the nation and do not desire any peace short of that. Then they will continue the retreat of their armies on the western front in the hope that an early winter will find them behind shorter and very much more powerful lines of defense, close to the German border, but still on her enemies' soil.

The supreme war council in Paris has considered the programme to be followed when the time does come for cessation of hostilities. It also is said to have been considering plans for dealing with the Balkan provinces, the Russian border states and Finland in the event Germany should undertake to evacuate those territories. Ample precautions will be taken to guard against an outbreak of Bolshevism and anarchy.

BERLIN PRESS CONFUSED.

Swiss dispatches today say the German newspapers are now showing a confusion equal to that which they showed in the interval between the proposal of Prince Maximilian and President Wilson's message of inquiry. Some of them are carried out by the German army and navy, and in desperate combat defend the German territory, but we must have no illusions in this respect. The most important time of her history Germany feels the lack of that very energetic military help, which according to ancient beliefs stands for right. However terrible this disillusion may be for the German people, brought up among military display, humanity will benefit by it if President Wilson is able to establish a real and just peace.

The Morgen Post: "The army high command believes, too, that the continuation of war in the present circumstances will bring no good results."

The Neue Landes Zeitung of Mannheim: "Organ of the Chamber of Deputies." "President Wilson and the Entente are mistaken if they think that war was not made with

HADE'S GOUT PILLS

SPANISH "FLU" IS SPREADING
Persons Weak and Down Are Easy Victims
Ounce of Prevention Worth Pound of Cure.
Fortify Yourself Against It by Taking Tanlac.

According to late reports by State and Federal health officials the Spanish influenza epidemic is rapidly spreading to all parts of the country, and it now seems practically every State in the Union will be seriously affected before its course is run.

It has not only become a great menacing threat to the health, but unless checked, it will work in the future, as it has in the past, to seriously affect the progress of the war.

Medical authorities agree that the disease is spreading among people who are weak and down, and that it is a general epidemic. If you find yourself weak and down, you are in a general epidemic.

First of all, Tanlac has been in action by creating a good appetite for wholesome, nourishing food, and assisting every body to perform its normal functions, thus helping to build up strength and health.

Tanlac is also the most effective tonic for persons suffering from the after effects of influenza, grippe or bronchitis, and hundreds of thousands are using it daily with the most satisfying results.

In connection with the treatment, it is necessary to take laxative tablets, which are included with every bottle of Tanlac. It is also important to observe the daily rules of health, and to keep the system in good condition.

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Drug Co., under the personal supervision of a special Tanlac representative. [Advertisement]

FOR THE WELFARE OF THE COMMUNITY
To Restore Normal Conditions and Make the Fourth Liberty Loan a Success
Editorial in The Christian Science Monitor, October 8, 1918.

A Mad World.
The world is the most prolific source of all evil. Of course if fear were the cause of all evil, it would be understood. But even from the point of view of the world, fear, when it communicates itself to the human consciousness, is capable of causing greater disaster than any other force.

The disease has made its progress in the East, where it has claimed its victims by the thousands. Reports from other countries are equally alarming. The military authorities have been closed and gathering of all kinds forbidden.

Medical authorities agree that the disease is spreading among people who are weak and down, and that it is a general epidemic. If you find yourself weak and down, you are in a general epidemic.

CROWN CITY IS NEARING GOAL
Only $300,000 Short of Liberty Loan Quota.

Dr. Scherer Cancels Plans for Trip to France.

Can do More for Army at College, He Says.

PARADENA, Oct. 15.—Pasadena's Liberty Loan subscriptions now total $1,074,000, which is only $300,000 short of the quota named for this city. The City Commission today unanimously voted to invest $40,000 of the municipality's money in Liberty Loan Bonds, making a total of $50,000 similarly invested in the four loans.

NOT GOING ABOARD.
Dr. James A. B. Scherer, president of Throop College of Technology, has announced that he has given up the idea of going to France, where he was to make a speaking tour among the American soldiers. He believes he can accomplish a bigger and better work by remaining in Pasadena, now that Throop College has established a Students' Army Training Corps, with 300 men in training. He also will look after an important piece of work for the Shipping Board, with Pasadena as his headquarters.

CONDITION BETTER.
Only twenty-five new cases of Spanish influenza have been reported in Pasadena since last night, and the health authorities believe they have the situation well in hand. They believe there is no danger of an epidemic. There are now less than 100 cases in the city, and no deaths have occurred.

PRIEST ARRIVES.
Right Reverend Monsignor McCarthy, successor to the late Rev. William F. Quinn as head of the St. Andrews Catholic Church, has arrived in the city from his home in New York. He says no changes in the official routine of the parish are contemplated.

AMERICAN DRIVE IN THIRD PHASE

portions of the front seemed to take the attitude that they had perhaps only a little time in which to strafe the enemy, and wanted to make the most of it.

Despite the rain which streamed down all day from low-hanging clouds, the American aviation corps again performed wonderful work in assisting the infantry, flying constantly at an altitude below 600 meters. The aviators efficiently directed battery work, made reconnaissance, kept the infantry in position with headquarters, and brought in valuable information.

The artillery of both sides was active throughout the day, the American guns predominating in intensity of fire. Several positions stubbornly held by the Germans were reduced by the close of day, and to countless times the enemy was hurled or otherwise destroyed by shells of all calibers.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTH OF THE ARGONNE.
Oct. 15.—(Reuter's.) Another step in the American drive was taken yesterday by the Americans when they moved their line up to the river Meuse, and the French near Grand-Pre.

The attack began early on Monday morning, but it was not until the afternoon that the real progress was made. Almost the entire day was taken up in a bitter struggle, through gas-filled woods, over the ravages of such a battle, that separated the Americans from the Germans entrenched behind them.

To the east of the Meuse the line moved forward to Sivy and Magnien, but just to the west of the river little advance was registered. Less effort was made there because the problem was to straighten the line further west, and there the French near Grand-Pre.

It is at Romagne that the American positions swing in a northwest direction, and there the French of Gen. von Gallwitz fought valiantly to hold back the Americans. New divisions were brought in today that part of the line, and every device of the Teutonic fighting machine was used to smash the pressure.

Except for brief periods, the latter part of the day, when the visibility slightly improved, it was a battle without adequate observation for either side. Close without a break covered the field throughout the day, and during much of the time a drizzling rain, and the fog, made the task of the American drive.

PUTS A TWO-CENT TAX ON ALL BANK CHECKS.
SENATE COMMITTEE VOTES AN AMENDMENT TO WAR REVENUE BILL.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A stamp tax of 2 cents on all bank checks is provided for in an amendment to the war revenue bill adopted by the Senate Finance Committee, which is now in the House.

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 8 to 6. Such a tax is opposed by Treasury Department officials, who say it would be a serious inconvenience to business, but would tend to discourage thrift and encourage hoarding.

Consideration of the revenue bill progressed so far today that the chairman of the committee tonight reiterated his prediction that the bill would be completed by October 25.

LOAN TOTAL SHY THREE BILLION.

Need $700,000,000 a Day to Raise Full Amount.

Situation Very Disappointing, Officials Say.

Los Angeles Leading in Boat-Naming Contest.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Only $154,000,000 of new Liberty Loan subscriptions were reported today, according to figures from the treasury, gathered by the treasury. The total subscription so far is $2,954,870,650, still short of the three billion, the "half-way figure."

In view of the expectation that the fruits of Liberty Day celebration last Saturday would be fully reflected in today's reports, treasury officials declared the outlook grave. The Liberty Loan campaign made no concession of the fact that the situation is very disappointing, said the official review of the loan's progress. With only four days of the loan period remaining, the country now faces the task of raising in excess of $2,000,000,000, or more than $700,000,000 a day.

Early morning messages to headquarters stimulated hope, not borne out by tonight's figures, that President Wilson's request for an immediate armistice would create a wave of enthusiasm which would sweep a multitude of subscriptions on its crest.

Tomorrow's figures will be watched carefully for evidence of this situation, reported in scores of telegrams from field workers. Considering the chance that subscribers are delaying payment of the first 10 per cent. installment, and that consequently their pledges do not show in the official figures, some districts are expected today that bond buyers pay down their 10 per cent. installment immediately.

This will have the effect of reducing the banks of the treasury's task of tabulating these payments in the rush of the last hours of the loan period. The nation on Saturday, the final day, precisely how big a job is out for it that day.

BE NOW SLOGAN.
Consequently, "buy now," promises to be a companion to "double the third," as a campaign slogan for the remaining days of the week. Totals of subscriptions by districts were reported tonight as follows:

Los Angeles, 1,200,000; San Francisco, 1,000,000; New York, 800,000; Chicago, 600,000; Boston, 400,000; Philadelphia, 300,000; St. Louis, 200,000; Cincinnati, 150,000; Cleveland, 100,000; Pittsburgh, 80,000; Baltimore, 60,000; Washington, 50,000; Portland, 40,000; San Diego, 30,000; Salt Lake City, 20,000; Honolulu, 10,000.

The New York district gained but $30,000,000 today, while Chicago lost $10,000,000. Cleveland added $18,000,000.

Gov. Gunter of Colorado telegraphed Secretary McAdoo that the State of Colorado and the city of Denver had both exceeded their quota of $1,000,000.

New England reported improved epidemic conditions. Public meetings were held in many communities. New England, 425 communities have won honor flags. The Navy Day Rear Admiral Cowie challenged the country to match the efforts of the navy. He issued the following challenge:

"The leaders of the nation are calling upon the people to float this flag under one-half of it in a few days that are left. The navy, meantime, has passed the high-water mark of $1,000,000, and is going ahead with undiminished force. The navy is coming across again—over the top—stronger, quicker, bigger, stronger. For the sake of the country, for the sake of victory, for the sake of honor, 'Our slogan has been: 'Fight or buy bonds, the navy does both.'"

STATE DEFENSE BOARD PUTS ON LOAN SCREWS.

INSTRUCTS COUNTY COUNCILS TO SEE THAT ALL SUBSCRIBERS TO EXTENT OF MEANS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Charles C. Moore, director of the State Council of Defense, instructed all chairmen of county divisions of the council tonight to give their full assistance to their local Liberty Loan committees, "especially with reference to those citizens whose ability to subscribe is known to be beyond their subscriptions made."

"This," the message continued, "applies to those of smaller means as well as those of larger. The law which created the State Council of Defense makes it the duty of the council to deal with measures to increase the public response that war demands may be met."

"Your county division is asked in a spirit of discretion and fairness to take such steps as may be advisable, using their division as a whole or through a subcommittee as desired by the council, can be helpful to quicken the reluctant consciences to an appreciation of their responsibility."

"Please remember that organized sentiment, combined with the manifest purpose of the law as represented by the council, can be helpful to the Liberty Loan by exerting through proper measures the pressure necessary to wake to action those who are behind-hand either through ignorance or deliberate neglect."

The Liberty Loan, the message said, was the most important question now before Americans.

UTAH STILL SHORT.
SALT LAKE CITY (Utah) Oct. 15.—Utah is short $2,442,750 of its quota of $18,570,000 in the Fourth Liberty Loan, it was announced today. The first announcement made for nearly a week.

SEEK BODIES OFF OTRANTO. British Search Debris Cast up the Sea in Effort to Find Dead.

ISLAND OF ISLAY (Scotland) Oct. 15.—A British army labor battalion has begun to remove the Otranto wreckage, piled in enormous masses in many deep gullies on this savage shore. Only by much laborious and systematic work can the bodies believed to be buried under the wreckage be removed, and it may be several weeks before the task is completed. Other bodies are imprisoned in rocky inlets and in great beds of kelp, or tangled, as the islanders term it.

The Otranto went to pieces on a great rock a mile out, almost at the very entrance to Machir Bay, whose sandy beach might have offered a haven to the disabled transport. A year ago a small steamer stranded on that beach intact, without the loss of a single life.

The storm that raged at the time of the loss of the Otranto was so terrific that wreckage was carried by huge waves over the cliffs a quarter of a mile inland. It is regarded as a miracle that anyone on board escaped, yet only one or two exceptions, the twenty survivors who reached Islay showed little effects of their fearful ordeal.

CAST UP BY SEA.

Bert. MacDonald, a husky Highland boy, was hurled by a giant comb into one of the deepest rocky ravines, amid grinding timbers, broken boxes and portions of the Otranto's cargo. He climbed out with scarcely a scratch and with strength so unimpaired that he was

CRUSH EIGHT HUN DIVISIONS

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 15.—(Reuters.)—Since Sunday morning eight of the German front-line divisions in Flanders have been felled, broken and confused, while probably most of the divisions held in reserve behind them received a heavy grueling. This apparently has not been a battle of limited objectives, but rather a drive, and where towns resisted at all strongly the line has been pushed on, closing gaps, beyond and leaving clearing-up parties to finish the work.

YELLOW COW SALE NO CASE OF FRAUD.

Jure Leko did not defraud H. Goldstein on the Fourth of July last when he sold him a "yellow cow with a white face" for $10. This was decided yesterday when the attorney general of the defense and Deputy District Attorney Keres asked Superior Judge Willis that the case against Leko be dismissed.

It seems that Leko represented the cow as being in a healthy condition, free from influenza germs "and everything," and Goldstein later discovered the animal was both shy on milk and flesh. Suspicion that the animal also had tuberculosis germs caused Goldstein to journey to the District Attorney's office and swear to a complaint. Deputy District Attorney Keres stated that detective of his office had found the cow in good condition.

IRISH CONVICTIONS.

A jury in Judge Monroe's court yesterday awarded Roy C. McElmer $500 damages in his suit against Ernest F. Oberdick for injuries he sustained in a fight in the front yard of the premises at No. 240 Boynton avenue, Tropic. Mr. McElmer alleged that he was hit on the head with a brick in the hands of Mr. Oberdick, his landlord. The latter declared he acted in self-defense.

STRUGGLING RIVALS DISTANCED

Successful business men and experienced advertisers exercise unusual care and discerning judgment in the purchase of advertising space; and that they regard The Times as being the best publicity medium on the Pacific Coast is demonstrated by the extent to which they concentrate their advertising in its columns week-in and week-out, year after year.

The following is the advertising record of Los Angeles newspapers for Sunday, October 13th, 1918:

BATTLE SUMMARY

GERMANS LOSE BELGIAN SOIL.

THE ENTENTE FORCES IN Belgium and France continue successfully to drive the enemy before them. In Belgian Flanders the advance is somewhat rapid, but on all the sectors in France the Germans are fighting with desperation to hold back their foe.

The great wedge that is being driven by the Belgian, British and French troops in Flanders now threatens seriously the tenure by the enemy of many positions in North Belgium from the Lys River to the sea, including his submarine and other bases along the coast, while to the south the Lys salient gradually is being enmeshed and doubtless soon will receive attention from the plotters, which are being aided for the task of reclaiming this important tract of territory as far as Valenciennes for France.

Meanwhile the French and American forces are struggling valiantly forward in their drive northward from the Champagne region into the country over which the Germans must effect a retirement to their own border in the event of a final debacle. As has been the case all along the offensive began, the Germans are vigorously defending their positions, using innumerable machine-gun detachments in endeavors to hold their ground.

Particularly vicious are the counter-thrusts that the Americans are being compelled to sustain east and west of the Meuse, where the entire enemy front is threatened with immediate collapse should Gen. Liggett's men crash through the line of material gains.

Nevertheless, both the Americans and the French are demonstrating that their arms be served, and on various sectors they are meeting with success. In the Roman sector further advances have been made by the Americans in the face of terrific artillery and machine-gun fire and the natural defenses and great systems of wire entanglements which have to be negotiated. Bad weather has fallen over the sector and the airman have been unable to drive their usual brilliant account of the whole of the day.

To the west the French are slowly closing in upon Rethel on their way to Mezieres, being only two miles distant from the town.

West of Grandpre they have effected further crossings of the Aisne, forcing 800 Germans were made prisoners in this fighting.

In Flanders the British have taken the important town of Ypres, and the Thourout-Courtrai railroads, has almost been won. Numerous towns have been recaptured by the Allied forces and large numbers of prisoners have been taken. Many guns also have fallen into the hands of the Allies.

The capture of Thourout completely outflanks the German submarine base at Ostend and brings the Allied troops within ten miles of Bruges, whence the railroad line runs northward to Zeebrugge.

Reports are to the effect that the Germans are withdrawing what left of their forces in the north, both naval and military. In Albania the Italians have occupied the Adriatic base of Durazzo, on the Adriatic, while in Serbia the Allied forces are continuing to press the enemy troops north of Belgrade.

SENTENCE BANK BANDITS

Youths Who Looted Home Savings Branch Denied Probation by the Court.

Denying the applications for probation of the four youthful bank bandits, Frank Domarski, Robert Hayes, Jack Walters and Frank McDermott, who looted the Westlake branch of the Home Savings Bank of $1175 on August 1, Superior Judge Keres yesterday imposed the maximum sentence, an indeterminate period of from one year to life imprisonment, on all the defendants.

The confessions, taking advantage of the fact that most of the police department was detailed to the downtown district for the Red Cross parade, drove up to the Home Savings Bank on Alvarado street at 1 o'clock. Entering the bank, the youths held up the cashier, book-keeper and one customer at the point of revolvers, and escaped with all the cash in sight. The four youths, the man was arrested. Most of the money had been spent on clothes and wine suppers.

RIOT ON STREET CAR

Shipyard Workers Take Possession of Trolley After Refusing to Pay Their Fares.

Seventy-five shipyard workers, who refused to pay their fares on a Vernon-Vermont-avenue town car last night, while at Vernon avenue and Long Beach boulevard, caused several riot calls to be sent in to Central and University police stations.

The workers took possession of the car, appropriating 250 transfers and also operating the fare register. The 618 fares were recorded. Then when police machines from Vernon, University and Central police divisions began to arrive, the mob leaped off the car and fled in the darkness. Inspector Snyder, while attempting to effect arrests of the workers from the car, which was in charge of Conductor Laws and Motorman Compton, was thrown bodily into the street, but was unharmed. No arrests were made.

ARMY OFFICER TELLS OF 'GIFTS' RECEIVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Testimony that Felix Gould, army contractor promoter, on trial in Federal court for charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with army railroad contracts, had given $1000, a wrist watch and lap robe to Capt. Aubrey W. Vaughan, U.S.A., procurement officer of the quartermaster's department, was given by Capt. Vaughan himself at today's hearing.

Capt. Vaughan, who had previously pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with acceptance of a bribe, stated that he had been influenced by them in his recommendations on thirty-six railroad contracts totaling $2,000,000.

INCREASED AUTHORITY GIVEN HEALTH SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Increased authority in combating epidemic disease was granted the public health service by a Senate resolution adopted today by the House. The resolution specifically creates a public health reserve in the service and authorizes the President to commission physicians, sanitarians, senior assistant sanitarians and assistant sanitarians.

Physicians who have retired from active practice because of age under the resolution can be commissioned in the public health service.

CONDUCTOR CONVICTED.

S. G. Capt. Pacific Electric conductor, A. W. Dr. A. J. Scott, was by a jury in Police Judge Chesbro's court on the charge of embezzling tickets. The jury returned a verdict after a deliberation of seven hours. W. J. Clark, another conductor arrested on a similar charge, was acquitted several days ago.

OFFICIAL REPORTS. LONDON PRESS LAUDS WILSON'S PEACE REPLY.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—American troops on patrol crossed the Salla River in the neighborhood of St. Souplet, south of Le Cateau, yesterday, and took thirty prisoners, Field Marshal Haig announced in an official report today.

Raiding operations on several portions of the British front, notably near Baillinham-Weppe, southwest of Lille, are reported in the official statement. Prisoners were taken by the British parties.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Northeast of Lens the British have advanced to the neighborhood of Haubourdin, about three miles west of Lille, and to the south have crossed the Haute Deule Canal, south of Pont-a-Vendin, and taken several villages, according to the official statement of Field Marshal Haig issued tonight.

The independent air force today bombed the Freacray air-drome and blew up a Zeppelin short of the front. The newspaper announced made here tonight.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—French troops have made an important advance toward the important town of Rethel and have captured the town and the surrounding area. Although much remains to be done, the great central fact stands established, which means a speedy end of the war.

On the question of an armistice, the Guardian suggests as security the temporary occupation of Essen, the evacuation of the whole of Alsace-Lorraine and the surrender of the German U-boat fleet.

The Westminister Gazette gives first place to President Wilson's declaration that the destruction of every arbitrary power.

The Manchester Guardian says the German has surrendered, and although much remains to be done, the great central fact stands established, which means a speedy end of the war.

COMPLETE SURRENDER HELD CANADA'S IDEAL.

TORONTO, Oct. 15.—The unconditional surrender of Germany, or such occupations of that country as will insure the carrying out of Allied peace terms, are the only conditions on which Canada is willing to end the war, Newton Wesley Rowell, president of the Privy Council of Canada, declared in an address here today.

Rowell said that his men across the sea to help save liberty and democracy and he will not call them back until the object for which they went has been accomplished. Mr. Rowell said.

Copies of the document, the authenticity of which as being of German origin has been established, are now in the possession of the Department of State. The circular, which is in Spanish, states:

"Besides an untold amount of war material captured on the battle field, the Germans have taken possession of incalculable booty in France and Belgium, including high-grade watches, 417,000 average watches, 5014; underwear, 18,072; embroidery and women's handkerchiefs, 15,118; umbrellas and parasols, 3705; silver spoons, 1874; bottles of champagne, 523,000.

"These figures show a large increase over those of the campaign against France in 1870-71.

"The Germans have also taken possession of many art treasures, the value of which is estimated at 3,000,000,000 francs. The Germans have also taken possession of many art treasures, the value of which is estimated at 3,000,000,000 francs. TO GET COMMISSION.

Son of Dr. A. J. Scott will be Lieutenant Today—Others of Family in Service.

Dr. A. J. Scott of No. 1553 Westlake avenue last night received word from Camp Hancock, Ga., that his son will be given his commission today and will rank as Lieutenant Robert H. Scott. Lieut. Scott enlisted in January with the University of California contingent that attended the officers' training camp at Kearny. After three months there he was promoted to second lieutenant and sent to the University of California to the Georgia camp for intensive training in machine-gun work.

Lieut. Scott received his B.A. degree at the University of California in 1915, and had been in the office of Attorney General Williams here. He is 27 years old and unmarried.

Three other members of Dr. Scott's family are serving the government. A son, Dr. A. J. Scott Jr., is on the S.A.T.C. medical examining board at U.S.C.; another son, Carlton D. Scott, is working in the Craig shipyard, and his daughter, Miss Margaret Scott, responsible for the great impetus given to Red Cross work in the early days of the war here, when she was local secretary, has enlisted, and is assistant chief nurse at Camp Lewis, and expects to go to France in the near future.

Dr. Scott was named by Mayor Woodman as the representative of the city in entertaining the Danish Prince, Axel, who visits here a week from tomorrow.

MINNESOTA FIRES SPREAD.

Death List Now Estimated at Thousand; More Villages Threatened.

DULUTH, Oct. 15.—Five trains loaded with refugees and fire fighters, with full heads of steam in their engines, were standing in the outskirts of Duluth tonight, awaiting word of the progress made against forest fires which broke out afresh in this district late today.

Advices stated that McGrath, White Pine and Salina, Minn., sixty miles southwest of here, were threatened with destruction by fire, a change of wind having given the flames a new lease of life. In addition to the towns mentioned, Wabikon and Pillager, Minn., were said to be threatened by past fires, but so far as known their danger is not great.

Reports from the burned areas were night were to the effect that the bodies of 725 fire victims have been recovered, with much of the devastated section still to be explored.

Officials continued to estimate the number of dead at close to 1000.

Coincident with the announcement that State officials will hold a rehabilitation conference tomorrow at the State Constitution, permitting the evacuation of the whole of Alsace-Lorraine and the surrender of the German U-boat fleet.

The Manchester Guardian says the German has surrendered, and although much remains to be done, the great central fact stands established, which means a speedy end of the war.

LET'S WE FORGET.

No. 7.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The honest pride with which Germany looks back on its achievements in Belgium and Northern France, including the burning of Louvain, the destruction of the cathedrals of Rheims, Soissons, Ypres, Arras and other Belgian cities, and the ruin or theft of priceless treasures of art and literature, is manifested in a circular distributed by German propagandists in Spain a few months ago, setting forth claims as to what has been accomplished by the German army.

Copies of the document, the authenticity of which as being of German origin has been established, are now in the possession of the Department of State. The circular, which is in Spanish, states:

"Besides an untold amount of war material captured on the battle field, the Germans have taken possession of incalculable booty in France and Belgium, including high-grade watches, 417,000 average watches, 5014; underwear, 18,072; embroidery and women's handkerchiefs, 15,118; umbrellas and parasols, 3705; silver spoons, 1874; bottles of champagne, 523,000.

BAKER TELEGRAM ASKS TROOPS TO BUY BONDS.

MORE THAN $140,000 RAISED BY SUBSCRIPTION AT CAMP LEWIS.

CAMP LEWIS (Tacoma, Wash.), Oct. 15.—A personal telegram from Secretary of War Woodman, asking at retreat to every soldier in Camp Lewis this evening as part of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign.

The telegram, which has never been a more critical time in the history of the war than this present week overseas, declared the "wonderful initiative and spirit of our soldiers must not be dulled by any failure to carry the Fourth Liberty Loan victoriously over the top."

The telegram also called upon every soldier and officer to subscribe. Let every American soldier and every American officer do his duty, not only by subscribing himself, but by urging those at home to subscribe.

The telegram was also read to 20,000 soldiers of the Thirteenth Division, who marched to Camp Lewis this afternoon to listen to an address by the Rev. Dr. James E. Freeman of Minneapolis.

Mr. Freeman had recently returned from France, and he told the soldiers of what other Americans were doing there as incentive for soldiers to do their duty.

Bond subscriptions today totaled more than $140,000 from soldiers here. It was announced.

WRITES "LITTLE MOTHER."

SANTA MONICA BEACH, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Lederman, known by soldiers as "Mother," had a letter only a few days ago from Edward R. Van Denberg, whose death was noted yesterday morning in The Times. The letter told how the young soldier longed to be home again after the war was over. The young man used to be clerk at the Ocean Park Hotel and leaves a father and two sisters at No. 2210 Third street, this city.

WINTER RACING PROSPECTS GOOD.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.—The prospects of the winter racing meeting are good, the backers of the project declare.

The appointment of a Committee of Appeals of substantial men of the city of New Orleans for the fair grounds racing is a great step forward, and is the preliminary step to the formation of a jockey club, which will erect a clubhouse on the fair grounds and bring to racing a social side which will aid greatly.

GRIDIRON GOSSIP.

U.S.C. is minus a star tackle. Kenneth Brookman, known as "Speed" Brookman, enlisted some time ago in the naval aviation branch of the service and day before yesterday received his call to report to North Island, San Diego.

Keith Hunter, member of the Trojan squad, is nursing a net toe. It seems that every time "Turk" goes out on the field for a little practice some big husky steps of it and he has to walk around the campus wearing a tennis shoe about the size of a shoe for him.

Charles Erb, Manual Arts football captain, was seen walking around the Trojan campus trying to get a line-up on the Poly team. Bill Haney's bunch was scheduled to play the Trojans yesterday, but the game fell through.

Ben Weiss, the husky Trojan tackle, was caught leaving the campus carrying a "trick" book under his arm. The secret is out—Ben takes an examination this morning for the balloon branch of aviation.

Football is slowed up a little at Occidental these days. The coach, Lieut. Richards Wilson, is down with the flu. Some of the boys are also on the sick list.

Coach Fred Johnson of Hollywood High certainly is an optimistic fellow. His team has had about the worst luck of any squad in the city. At first the field wasn't in condition and practice was delayed for several weeks.

Mrs. Peter Fitterer of 10 Holt street, North Hollywood, Mass., used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to combat the effects of rheumatism, accompanied by attacks of indigestion. This is her experience.

"I was living in Nova Scotia some years ago and contracted a severe cold. The next day I was confined to bed. Sharp pains started in my right shoulder and nearly drove me mad. I worked down to my right knee which was stiff and sore, and was to my hands. I could not sleep and was in terrible pain all the time. My knee was swollen.

"My stomach was affected and I would have terrible pains after eating. Gas would form and I would have smothering sensations and could eat little. I was very nervous. My doctor advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and as I had heard of a boy who had St. Vitus' dance and had been benefited by those pills I was encouraged to try them.

After I had taken three boxes I was much better, the pains in my shoulder and limbs were so no intense. I took several more boxes and the pains left me. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly built up my blood and restored my strength."

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing much information about rheumatism is free on request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or by mail, postpaid. My receipt of price, 30 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Johnny Aitken, famous automobile racing driver, one of the latest victims of pneumonia and influenza.

AITKEN INFLUENZA VICTIM.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Oct. 15.—John Aitken, one of the best known automobile race drivers in America, died here today of pneumonia following an attack of influenza. He had participated in most of the big automobile speed contests since that sport became popular. He was 23 years old.

JOHN W. HEISMAN IS ONE OF THE FAMOUS FOOTBALL TRINITY. ATLANTA (Ga.) Oct. 15.—"Football's master strategist," is what they call John W. Heisman, coach of Georgia Tech. And richly does he deserve the title. No tutor in gridiron history ever has eclipsed the accomplishments of this veteran teacher of football tactics.

Heisman, together with Alonzo Stagg of the University of Chicago and Glen Warner of the University of Pittsburgh, constitutes the "football trinity." These three men are the lone survivors of the legion of football coaches who began their careers more than twenty-five years ago. Their deeds have formed some wonderful chapters in football history and are greater today than ever before.

Heisman, a progressive, has been credited with bringing about many football reforms. It was perhaps the first football coach in America to advocate the forward pass. Three years prior to the introduction of this play he had considerable correspondence with the Football Rules Committee, going into elaborate details in explaining its benefits.

Two years the committee pondered over the suggestion—and then adopted the greatest football reform play since the game's inception. Heisman, years ago, perfected end running to the nth power. Unfortunately, in the fact that almost always his teams were extremely light, he overcame the handicap by developing speed and trickiness.

He has been using for years an end-running interference unlike that of any other coach in America, and his teams, failing in their every attempt to shatter it effectively, called it "inhumanly perfect." It was the use of that end-running formation in earlier years and the perfection of the forward pass in this later day that has brought such amazing success to all of Heisman's teams.

But the most famous play which Heisman has devised is called the Heisman shift, which he first trotted out in 1910. The formation of the rush line and of the backs is a gigantic "T." When the signal for the play is made the whole team moves as one piece of mechanism. All of the team's play is made from that shift. It has bewildered and baffled every team that has tried to break it up. The play starts with the whole team back of the line and with the "T" whirling like a chip in a maelstrom.

Heisman, during the past eight years of his career, has had many opportunities to coach some of the biggest colleges in America. Big financial inducements have been made. But Heisman remained at Georgia Tech. And there, through 1915, 1916 and 1917 came to him his greatest glory.

Through those three years Georgia Tech mingled in twenty-five duels without suffering defeat. The three eleven rolled up the amazing total of 1123 points—an average of 45 points per game—while its rivals could score only 61. The 1916 Georgia Tech team, playing against Cumberland, won by the wonderful score of 232 to 0.

The "Golden Tornado" team of Georgia Tech in 1917 played—and won—nine games. It rolled up 491 points against 17 by its foes, and numbered the University of Pennsylvania, Carlisle, Vanderbilt, Washington and Lee and Auburn among its victims. Auburn, which led the week before had played a scoreless tie with Ohio State, champion of the "Big Nine" in the West, was beaten 68 to 7 by Tech.

Heisman lost nine members of the 1917 championship aggregation, but he has been building anew and already is showing a team—"green" though it is—which may class with the greatest in America.

POLLARD CHAMPION OF FILM WORLD. There was championship handball for blood and the glory of being the champ of the Southern California film world at the Los Angeles Athletic Club yesterday. Harry Pollard defeated Al Ray, 8-1, 21-4, 21-17, so Pollard now holds the title.

WETPROOF STEEL LINED SHOT SHELLS. MAKE your showery hunting days this fall the good days for ducks they really ought to be, with the right shotshell—Remington UMC Smokeless "Arrow" or "Nitro Club" Wetproof Steel Lined "Speed" Shell. No matter how much water may get to them, they will actually stay just as dry and serviceable as your Remington UMC Pump Gun or Autoloading Shotgun.

To Be Open Daily.

Officials of the Stage Women's War Relief Organization announced yesterday that the workroom, 408 Mason Opera House Building, will be open weekdays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Licensed at Vancouver.

A marriage license was issued to Donald Godfrey, 39, of Los Angeles, and Miss Mildred Buckle, 29, of Portland, Or., yesterday at Vancouver, Wash.

May Enroll at Y.M.C.A.

The Young Men's Christian Association has temporarily closed its schools, but the educational office will be open for students to enroll in the accountability, wireless and other courses, which bear upon the preparation of men for government service. Women will also be admitted to the accountability and wireless school. Provision has been made for enrolled accountability students to continue their work at home until public gatherings are again permitted.

TWO U.S.C. GRADUATES
DIE IN ARMY SERVICE.

LIETT. SPAETH, AMATEUR ACTOR AND FRATERNITY MAN,
SUCCEUMS TO PNEUMONIA.

Second Lieutenant Walter Spaeth, well-known amateur actor and fraternity man who graduated from the University of Southern California with the class of winter '17, died October 11 of pneumonia, at the officers' training school, Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. He has been commissioned but a short time before.

At U.S.C. he belonged to the Theta Psi Fraternity, played leading parts in many of the dramatic productions, appearing as Napoleon Bonaparte in the class play, and was a member of the Lance and Lute Honor Society.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spaeth, are residents of Oakland. Another U.S.C. graduate and fraternity man, Dean Bradbrock Northway, member of the Delta Chi Fraternity, died in the East of pneumonia after three days' illness and was buried at Redlands, his home city, last Saturday. He engaged in private banking business in Los Angeles for some time.

Northway was 36 years old and a native of South Dakota. He attended the college of commerce and accounts and finance of the University of Southern California, and received his degree of LL.B. in 1916. A year ago he attended the artillery training school at Berkeley for some months and was then transferred to Camp Logan, Texas. His death occurred at the end of the course when he was expecting soon to receive his commission.

REDOONDO BEACH, Oct. 15.—As an aftermath to the general developments at the meeting of the Board of Trustees last night, during which former Mayor Harry Brolaski was ousted from office, an effort to recall Brolaski from the Council is being discussed by his political opponents. It is stated that petitions asking that such an election be called will be circulated in the near future. Brolaski left at the close of the meeting for San Francisco, and it is regarded as problematical whether he will fight such an election. Capt. H. W. Brolaski, his father, believes that his son will make no great effort to be retained in office.

HONOR RIVERSIDE BOYS.
[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 15.—Enviably honor has been conferred on two graduates of the Boys' Polytechnic High School of this city, who are now students at the University of California. Ray McGarity, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. McGarity, a sophomore, and Harold Payton, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Payton, freshman, are two of fifty-five men chosen from 1500 students to go to the general officers' training camp at Camp MacArthur, Tex., to try for an officers' commission in the infantry. The boys will go directly from Berkeley to the southern camp.

GERMAN SURRENDER IS WOMAN CHIEF'S CRY.

[BY A. NIGHT WINK.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—An appeal to the women of the United States "to demand unconditional surrender as the only price of peace" was issued tonight by Miss Elizabeth Marbury, honorary president of the Women's National Committee of the American Defense Committee.

"The time for pacifism and pussy-footers is over," she asserted. "Because our enemy is now tasting the bitterness of defeat, driving and sniveling and afraid, is the reason why we should refuse to parley now."

LUXEMBURG ASKS FOR WILSON'S PROTECTION.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 15.—According to the Bremen Verein Zeitung the Luxembourg Chamber of Deputies has unanimously adopted an order of the day beseeching President Wilson to protect Luxembourg's rights.

The order demanded that the government should obtain the evacuation of the country and the liberation of all Nationalists of Luxembourg condemned by the German military courts.

ALLIES BACK WILSON,
CHURCHILL DECLARES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MANCHESTER (Eng.) Oct. 15.—Winston Spencer Churchill, British Minister of Munitions, in a speech here today, said that President Wilson's stern and formidable answer to Germany is wholeheartedly endorsed by all the Allied countries. The answer, Mr. Churchill declared, has tended to prolong the conflict, but there would be no relaxation of the Allied efforts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Investigation by the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee into the purchase of the Washington Times by Arthur Brisbane with the aid of money advanced by German brewers very likely will develop into a general inquiry into the activities of German propagandists in this country.

This was indicated by members of the committee after information obtained by the army intelligence service had been submitted to the committee.

Sensations disclosed to the committee, but announced by the army intelligence service had been made to appear next Tuesday when the inquiry will begin. It also was understood that George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, would be called.

In further preparation for a general inquiry, the committee has asked E. Lowry Humes, former Federal District Attorney at Pittsburgh, to furnish the committee with a digest of information secured by the government as to the political activities of German brewers, as revealed by Federal grand jury investigations at Pittsburgh, while a similar request also was sent to B. F. Looney, Attorney-General of Texas.

A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, whose charges made in a speech in Harrisburg, Pa., resulted in the Senate ordering the investigation today, after opening of the hearing was postponed because of the illness of Alexander Konta of New York, the principal witness.

My Country, 'tis of Thee!

A SOLDIER OF FRANCE lay on a hospital-bed. His shattered arm had just been taken away. The doctor looked down with pity at the white young face. "I'm sorry, my boy, you had to lose your arm," he said. The eyes of the lad flashed. "No, no, doctor. I didn't lose it," he said; "I gave it—to France." His head sank back on his pillow, and he whispered, "My France."

Americans! Here in your God-given land of liberty, far from the furious battles and the countless hospital-beds of France, what flame leaps to your eyes when you say, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee?" Have the words filled your soul with a passion of love and a holy zeal which make service of country the greatest thing of life, the only thing worth while in these days? Are you ready and eager to enroll in the army of twenty-five million men and women now summoned to carry the Fourth Liberty Loan to victory?

Swift and sure we are moving to the great events which will bring triumphant peace to America, and to all the world, or plunge us into a deeper misery of unending war. General Pershing, with the First American Army, has struck the enemy a heavy blow. Our hearts thrill with eager anticipation after the long waiting. We hope; we trust; we look with proud faith to our great armies, and our brave allies; we expect the "decisive victory of arms" to which our President has pledged the nation. But we can not be SURE of it until every last one of us here at home has given himself and his all, "without pause or limit," to make our armies invincible.

No such victory has yet been won. Initial success is not "decisive victory." It is too soon to rejoice, or to say, "the war will soon be over." It is too early to talk of "the headlong retreat" of the enemy, or of a German military machine "on the point of collapse." The Prussians are not beaten. Their war-machine is not destroyed. Their savage fighting power, their endurance, their strategy, their supplies, are still unexhausted. Their greed, their devil-bred Kultur, their obsession for world-dominion are still rampant. They could not conquer Russia in the open; they conquered her in the dark with soul-poison, bribery, treachery, and all forms of bedevilment known to the Huns. Already they are harvesting from that vast domain men and supplies for the German war-machine. And now the greatest Hun general, Ludendorff, the most powerful man in Germany, defies the world and says, "Our will to victory remains unbroken. We settled Russia. We will settle the Americans."

We are answering the insolent Hun with our first mighty efforts on the battle-front. Their beginning cheers us mightily; but they are still only at the beginning. They must go on triumphantly. They must succeed. But two million American soldiers, soon to be joined by two million more, are looking back across the sea to us with an even more imperative demand, "You must not let us fail. We have staked our lives on your support. We need tanks, and guns, and shells, and airplanes without limit. Unless you send them we can not win. Buy more Liberty Bonds than you ever dreamed of buying. Don't you understand? Our part here will be HELL if you stint your part at home."

Before ever a soldier of Uncle Sam stepped upon the soil of France and unfurled America's battle-flag, the victory of our Allies was necessary for the safety and freedom of our country; but now our need for victory is multiplied four million times. The blood of every American boy spilled on that shell-torn ground cries to Americans for victory. From every hospital-bed where one of our boys is lying, gassed or wounded; from every cage in Germany that holds a brave American in cruel confinement; from every trench and camp, in France, in Italy, in Belgium; in Russia, the demand comes to us for victory. From every home in America into which the telegram has come bearing the news of a hero's sacrifice for his country, the demand for a victory that shall repay that sacrifice is challenging us more sternly each day. There must be no peace until such a victory is won. All our work, our thought, our money must be dedicated to this life-and-death need of our country as truly as the lives of our brave boys across the sea are dedicated to it.

Those devoted lives are in our hands. Shorten that casualty list which already reaches into the quivering hearts of thousands of American families. Lavish upon our armies, quickly, weapons and supplies which shall hasten their victory and stop all casualty lists. Pour out in a flood the paltry price in money, and lessen the greater price to be paid in the precious lives of our sons, our husbands, our brothers, and our dearest friends!

The enemy is malignant and merciless beyond our power to believe—we who have not seen. The need for his irretrievable defeat is more imperative than we have known—we who have not learned before of the foul wells from which the nature of the Hun has been springing. If we were forced to see what our soldiers, our chaplains, our Red Cross nurses have seen, we could not delay a moment to rid the world of the loathsome plague. Edward J. Lacey, an old employee of THE LITERARY DIGEST, now with the 165th New York, writes: "I can hardly sit still here, thinking of the things I have seen at the different fronts I've been fighting on. I have seen them have women chained to their machine guns, and . . . " The Rev. George A. Griffith, of Baltimore, a chaplain with the 5th Field Artillery, has told how the Huns took young Belgian and French girls into their first-line trenches and tortured them until their screams made the Scotch and Canadian soldiers so crazed that they rushed to rescue them, only to fall into the machine-gun nests into which the women's screams had been made to decoy them. Other soldiers, forced back by the leveled guns of their own officers, to keep them from needless slaughter, at length drove the fiends from their trenches and went over. What they saw there was too awful for words.

May a merciful God spare us all from seeing our daughters and wives chained to machine guns or tortured by the Huns! May we never see our little children or our old men crucified upon the doors of our ravaged homes! May we never see our babes impaled upon bayonets and carried through our streets over the shoulders of German soldiers!

MAKE IT IMPOSSIBLE! Make our armies invincible. Insure victory now, and freedom forever from the unspeakable Hun. Liberty Bonds without limit—Liberty Bonds for twenty-five million men and women who will buy them to their utmost ability—Liberty Bonds oversubscribed with a whirlwind of patriotic eagerness and grim determination—this must be our immediate answer to the Kaisers and the Turks, the workers of abomination and makers of dishonorable war, who now hold out bloody hands and cry for an "honorable" peace. Buy Liberty Bonds, and keep them; treasure them as a precious investment; do not sell them or trade them off until your Government calls for them at maturity. They are your proud possession, a proof of your loyalty, an insurance of all you hold most dear. Americans! In the full tide of your power and your abundance, answer, with all God has given you, the bitter cries of torn and outraged humanity. God has raised America, strong, rich, and free, to be His own right arm of deliverance. Save your homes and loved ones, and save a world lying in blood and tears! Buy Liberty Bonds with a hand that will not stop, and know the sublimer meaning deep in the heart of the words,

"MY Country, 'tis of Thee!"
